

Andrew Calvert

Formerly of Southbury

KEY WEST, Fla. — Andrew "Drew" Calvert, 25, formerly of Southbury, passed away suddenly on Aug. 23, 2011, in Florida.

Drew was born Dec. 7, 1985, in Norwalk, son of Brian and Robin (Agricola) Calvert of Southbury. He was educated in the local school system and attended the University of Connecticut. He entered the United States Coast Guard in 2009, serving in California and Alaska, and continued as an operations specialist in Sector Key West.

Drew was a longtime fan of the New England Patriots. He enjoyed the competition and comradery of athletics, competing in many triathlons, and by being a member of running clubs. He also enjoyed poker games with friends, the sights and sounds of the city, and his loyal pet, Kelly.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his brothers, Adam of Red Hook, N.Y., and Max of Southbury; grandparents, Evelyn Calvert of Pound Ridge, N.Y., and Martha and Robert Agricola of Block Island, R.I.; 17 aunts and uncles; and 26 cousins.

A memorial service will be held 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, at Sacred Heart Church, 910 Main Street South, Southbury. Calling hours are from 9 a.m. until the time of the service on Saturday in the daily chapel of the church. A private burial is planned. Local arrangements by Carpino Funeral Home, Southbury.

Memorial contributions in Drew's name may be made to Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Greater New Haven Chapter, 2969 Whitney Avenue, Hamden 06518-2556.

Powered by TECNAVIA

Copyright (c) 2011 Republican-American 09/01/2011